

Jeff Reina – Texas A&M University '93

- Jeff Reina is a Vice President in BAS's Natural Resources Group focused on the firm's oilfield services and refining and marketing efforts. Mr. Reina has more than six years of energy investment banking experience working on a broad range of assignments involving M&A advisory and financing in the public and private capital markets.
- Prior to joining BAS in 2002, Mr. Reina was an energy investment banking associate for Credit Suisse in New York. Prior to investment banking, Mr. Reina was a financial consultant for Merrill Lynch and other firms.
- Mr. Reina graduated summa cum laude from Texas A&M University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics. He also earned a Masters in Business Administration degree from New York University, where he was a scholarship recipient and honors graduate.

Justin Briscoe - Texas A&M University '05

- 2nd year analyst with BAS
- MS Finance (PPA)
- BBA Accounting (PPA)

Byron Geeslin - Texas A&M University '06

- 1st year analyst with BAS
- MS Finance (PPA)
- BBA Accounting (PPA)