The semester grade is based on:

- 43 answers on readings with asterisks (*), one point each, starting Jan. 31.
- Mid-semester and final exams (three questions each, 10 pts per question)
- Student Rule 7: you are expected to attend all classes and to have read all assigned readings. Miss more than three unexcused classes and you lose a letter grade.
- Miss mid-sem/final exam? Contact me immediately.
- Minimum grades: 90=A, 80=B, 70=C, 60=D.
- Texas A&M University and the College of Liberal Arts are committed to fostering a safe and productive learning environment for all. Although class materials are generally considered confidential pursuant to student record policies and laws, University employees (including instructors) cannot maintain confidentiality when it conflicts with their responsibility to report issues that jeopardize the health and safety of our community. As the instructor, I must report (per Texas A&M System Regulation 08.01.01) the following information to other University offices if you share it with me, even if you do not want the disclosed information to be shared:

- Allegations of sexual assault, sexual discrimination, or sexual harassment when they involve TAMU students, faculty, or staff, or third parties visiting campus. These reports may trigger contact from a campus official who will want to talk with you about the incident that you have shared. In many cases, it will be your decision whether or not you wish to speak with that individual. If you would like to talk about these events in a more confidential setting, you are encouraged to make an appointment with the Student Counseling Service (<https://scs.tamu.edu/>). Students and faculty can report non-emergency behavior that causes them to be concerned at <http://tellsomebody.tamu.edu>.
