

Homework 9

Math 669, Spring 2022

This homework is due on Monday, April 11.

This week, you will critique another student's draft. Staple your comments to the draft, and make sure both your name and the author's name appear on the front.

- (a) Read through the draft. Mark each spot you got confused.
- (b) What questions do you have for the authors?
- (c) What aspects of the draft did you like?
- (d) What could the author do to improve this draft?
- (e) (Optional) Other comments for the author?
